I have a python package that currently works with a django dev server, and I'd like to get it working with gunicorn. I have googled around to find some advice on how to do this, but I haven't had any luck. If I run the package with gunicorn and DEBUG=True, I get this error: /usr/local/bin/gunicorn -c /etc/python/gunicorn.conf.py --name myPackage --bind 0.0.0.0:8080 -D --daemon [2014-12-17 19:28:14 +0000] [1] [INFO] Starting gunicorn 19.3.0 [2014-12-17 19:28:14 +0000] [1] [ERROR] worker: Error processing service file /usr/local/bin/django [2014-12-17 19:28:14 +0000] [1] [INFO] Listening at: (1) [2014-12-17 19:28:14 +0000] [1] [INFO] Using worker: sync [2014-12-17 19:28:14 +0000] [9] [INFO] Booting worker with pid: 9 Traceback (most recent call last): File "/usr/local/lib/python2.7/dist-packages/celery/app/base.py", line 393, in dispatch_worker return self.dispatch_tasks() File "/usr/local/lib/python2.7/dist-packages/celery/app/base.py", line 384, in dispatch_tasks return self.main_dispatch() File "/usr/local/lib/python2.7/dist-packages/celery/app/base.py", line 374, in main_dispatch return self.load_schedule() File "/usr/local/lib 2d92ce491b
